VIRGINIA MERGER BECOMES A FACT

Arlington Electric Company Is Property of Maryland-Virginia Railway Company.

THE COURTS REFUSE TO AGIT

Merger of the Arlington Electric Company into the Maryland-Virginia Railway Company was voted by the stockholders of the Arlington company by 234 to 41 at a meeting held in the offices of the company at Clarendon last night. The forty-three negative votes were cast by the Alexandria Lighting Company, whose attorney, Leo Harlow, of Alexandria, was present.

M. E. Church, president of the Arlington company, presided at the meeting, and Gardner L. Booth, acting in the place of Secretary L. L. Northrup, who was absent by reason of illness. The proceedings were without notable incident, and afforded no surprise. The vote was taken by secret ballot.

FRANK THE CAPITAL

Chamber of Commerce Delegates Leave for Their Homes.

Loud in their praise of the National Capital and the hospitality to them from every side during their brief stay of two days, the 400 delegates to the Fifth International Congress of Chambers of Commerce left the city yesterday morning at 9:30 o'clock on their special train for Philadelphia. The Quaker City is the last stop before coming to the end of their long tour over the country in New York, whence most of the foreign delegates will sail for their homes.

WINS FIRST PRIZE BANNER

Company C Again Victor in Drill at National Training School.

Company C, holder of the first prize banner of the National Training School under the title gained in last year's competitive drill, again won that honor over four other companies yesterday. Company B won second prize banner, and Company E won third.

W. M. Shuster, president of the trustees of the school, presented the banners to the companies, which were cheered by the several hundred spectators present as the officers of the winning troops accepted the prizes. Company C, winner of first honors, is composed of the smaller boys of the school, and was prime favorite with the visitors.

Col. Burton R. Ross was in charge of the drill, and L. Eugene Willes directed the bands of the school, which furnished the music.

ENGLISH BID MAY FAIL

Assistant Secretary Winthrop Expected to Decide To-day.

When Assistant Secretary of the Navy Beekman Winthrop returns from New York to-day, he will have on his desk for a final decision the question of whether the offer of the English contractors who underbid American firms on a contract for supplying explosive shells shall be accepted.

The general opinion is that the English bid will be rejected. An opinion as to the legal phases of the situation was obtained from the Attorney General, and this opinion now awaits Mr. Winthrop's consideration. Officers of the Ordnance Bureau declared that they had been kept in ignorance of the nature of the opinion.

BOARDER IS BLAMED

Mabel H. Ward Sues Husband for Maintenance.

In her petition, for maintenance, filed yesterday, Mabel H. Ward alleges that her husband, Joseph R. Ward, lives in the same house with her, but refuses to talk to her, and recently wrote her a letter saying that he had decided to live apart from her and pay her $1.5 a week. The real cause of the domestic trouble, Mrs. Ward avers, was a woman boarder in whom, she alleges, her husband became interested. The couple were married November 20, 1904.

Seen for Maintenance.

Chalmers V. Beale was yesterday cited by Justice Barnard to show cause October 15 why he should not be compelled to support his wife, Hattie Beale, and their daughter, Florence, fourteen years old. Mrs. Beale yesterday filed suit for maintenance, alleging her husband deserted her and did not contribute to their support. They were married September 20, 1904, and lived together until August. They have one child.

TWO AMERICANS HELD FOR RANSOM

Mexican Rebels Demand $20,000 for Release of Cattle Dealer and Ranch Manager.

Two Americans are being held for ransom by rebels in Mexico, according to advices to the State Department yesterday. They are John T. Cameron, a cattle dealer, and Arthur McCormick, manager of the Palomas Ranch, near the Texas border.

Cameron was taken off a train on the Mexico Northwestern Railroad by rebels and is now held prisoner by Salazar at the Cinco de Mayo mine, 12 miles south of Juarez. The rebels are demanding $15,000 as the price of Cameron's release. Gen. Aubert, to whom the American officials at Juarez protested, gave as his excuse for the occurrence that the railroad company objected to his putting a guard on the train.

The State Department was informed late yesterday, however, that Gen. Aubert had sent troops to go to the rescue of Cameron. Mrs. Cameron is in Juarez. Only $5,000 is asked for the release of McCormick. Representations demanding protection for him have been made to the federal government at Mexico City by the American Ambassador.

The Governor of Sonora claims that 4,000 rebels have been driven out of that state in the last two months. Only small bands are operating in Sonora now. Refugees from the State of Mexico are still pouring into Mexico City. Many rebels are reported to have surrendered to the federal authorities in near-by states.

SISTER BENEFICIARY.

Will of Virginia Courtenay Leach Filed for Probate.

The will of Virginia Courtenay Leach, dated December 1, 1910, was filed for probate yesterday, and testatrix directs that all her property be held by the American Security and Trust Company in trust, the income therefrom to be paid to her sister, Florence V. Handbury, during life. At her death the principal of the estate is to be transferred to her niece, Virginia C. Southcott and Ethelwynne C. Ritter. Pickering Dodge, of Falls Church, is named as executor.

Daniel Bacon Street, in his will dated August 12, 1908, gives all his property to his wife, Annie Adelaide Street, who is also named executrix. Naming his wife beneficiary and executrix of his estate, the will of Morris H. Weigle, dated December 20, 1908, was filed for probate yesterday.

MORE JURYMEN DRAWN.

Difficulty Experienced in Getting Panel in Milano Case.

It being apparent that a jury in the case of Tony Milano, charged with murder in connection with the death of twelve-year-old Harry Smith, could not be procured yesterday, Justice Stafford directed the clerk to draw the names of fifty additional tallestmen, who are to report this morning. As the defense has only four more challenges, it is expected the trial will begin about 11 o'clock this morning. Assistant District Attorney Hawken will make the opening statement for the prosecution. Yesterday was consumed in a futile attempt to obtain a jury. Seventy-five tallestmen were examined, but such a great number had conscientious scruples against capital punishment or had formed opinions that the prosecution as well as to the defense could not be secured.

A Harris & Ewing Photograph.

The unusually fine portrait of Mr. Theodore Roosevelt, printed in Tuesday morning's Washington Herald, was taken from a Harris & Ewing copyright photograph, which fact was unintentionally omitted when it was reproduced in this paper.
